

Electing Beneficiary Designation for Minnesota Life

Employees, Manager & HR Professionals

Important News About Electing Your Beneficiary for Life Insurance:

Minnesota Life Insurance Company will be the new carrier for Life Insurance effective January 1, 2008. All benefits remain the same. However, you must submit a Beneficiary Designation either online or by submitting a form to Minnesota Life.

Did You Know?

- ❓ You can update your beneficiary information directly by logging on to www.lifebenefits.com/florida
- ❓ If you do not have your People First Employee ID number, you will not be able to designate a beneficiary on the Minnesota Life website. You will need to mail a beneficiary form (available on the People First website) to Minnesota Life.
- ❓ Your current coverage will transfer to Minnesota Life automatically. Any previously held life insurance beneficiary designation will NOT transfer to Minnesota Life.
- ❓ To contact Minnesota Life regarding questions call 1-888-826-2756.

How Do I Designate A Beneficiary?

1. Logon to the Minnesota Life website at www.lifebenefits.com/florida
2. Enter FL then your People First Employee ID number
3. Enter your date of birth
4. Enter the last four digits of your social security number

NOTE: To request a Beneficiary Designation form you can call the People First Service Center at 1-866-663-4735 or complete the Beneficiary Designation form located on the People First web site.

What If I Do Not Designate A Beneficiary?

If you do not designate a beneficiary with Minnesota Life, your beneficiary will be the default beneficiary as stated in the policy. In the event of your death, subsequent to designating a beneficiary, benefits will be paid in the following order:

1. Your lawful spouse, if living.
2. Your natural or legally adopted child (children) in equal shares, if living.
3. Your parents, in equal shares, if living.
4. The personal representative of your estate.