

Be part of Florida's flagship event where vendors and spenders connect

MatchMaker Conference & Trade Fair

Nearly 1,500 small, minority and women business owners convene with buyers for three days to share information, network and build relationships.

In this dynamic forum, MatchMaker, hosted by the State of Florida's Office of Supplier Diversity, empowers business development - for both small and minority business enterprises, and private and public buyers.

Benefits for Event Partners

- Exclusive promotional rights to establish brand presence and corporate identity
- Brand your company among Florida's small and minority business community
- Marketing and advertising opportunities at Florida's largest single gathering of small, minority and women business owners
- Establish and nurture viable business partnerships
- Connect your company's goals and supplier diversity program to a target audience
- Three days of interaction with small, minority and women business owners, plus corporate and government executives and business professionals

MatchMaker has a reputation as the premier business conference to connect business owners, contractors, diversity managers, purchasing agents, government officials, state agencies, universities and community college representatives - at one place, at one time with one purpose - to do business.
